Indigenous Veterans' Day and Remembrance Day

We will take time to honour and remember those who have served and continue to serve our country.

On Sunday, November 8, we recognize Indigenous Veterans' Day, acknowledging the many First Nations, Métis, and Inuit peoples who have proudly served in the Canadian Armed Forces. Their courage, sacrifices, and contributions to peace efforts are an important part of our shared history.

On Wednesday, November 11, the school will be closed we observe Remembrance Day, a time to reflect on the bravery and dedication of all who fought and continue to serve in times of war, conflict, and peacekeeping. We wear a poppy and pause in silence to express our gratitude and to remember that their sacrifices have helped shape the freedoms we enjoy today.

To honour both of these important days, our school will be holding a whole-school assembly on Tuesday, November 10th. During this time, we will come together in reflection and gratitude.

Lest we forget.
