

INSPIRE THE NEXT GENERATION OF CREATIVE WRITERS

Empower students in Grades 4–8 to find their voice.

Kids Write 4 Kids is Ripple Foundation's annual, Canada-wide creative writing contest for students in Grades 4–8. Winning stories are professionally published in print and e-book formats, and proceeds from book sales are donated to each winner's chosen charity—building both literacy and a spirit of giving.

- Who: Students in Grades 4–8
- Cost: Free to enter
- Deadline: March 31, 2026
- Submit Online: <https://www.ripplefoundation.ca/contest> by a teacher, parent, or guardian
- Rules & Regulations: <https://www.ripplefoundation.ca/contest-rules>
- Previous Winners' Books: <https://www.ripplefoundation.ca/books>
- Poster: <https://www.ripplefoundation.ca/poster>

Benefits for Your Students & Communities

- Skill Building: Sparks creativity, critical thinking and editing skills.
- Social Impact: All proceeds benefit the winner's charity of choice.
- Community Recognition: Published authors boost community pride.

Be a champion of young writers

Display poster (p2) in your school, library, or community center to help spread the word.

About Ripple Foundation: We are a 100% volunteer-run Canadian educational charity offering free programs that foster creativity, confidence, and critical thinking among children and youth. Charitable Registration No. 80589 5760 RR0001.

Educational Charity
ripplefoundation.ca/contest

Educational Charity
ripplefoundation.ca/contest

