IMPORTANT POLICY INFORMATION

Admission Process

Acceptance to a program is based on academic merit: English test scores and transcript marks. No spots will be reserved for a student unless the full application package and documents are submitted.

Applicants must submit the application fee and the seat deposit fee to receive a Letter of Acceptance.

As an applicant, it is your responsibility to notify LRSD International Student Program of changes to your personal information including your name, address, phone number, and email address. Communications from LRSD returned as undeliverable will result in your application being canceled.

Study Permit: Upon admission and acceptance to our program, LRSD will issue you with a Letter of Acceptance. This letter can be used to apply to the Canadian Embassy, Consulate or High Commission for a Study Permit. PLEASE NOTE: failure to provide LRSD with your Study Permit ONE MONTH before program start date may result in the cancellation of your application.

Work Permit: For most programs at LRATC, work experience is a required part of the curriculum. International students enrolled in programs with a co-op or internship must apply for a work permit as well as a study permit. It is the responsibility of the student to apply for work permit.

For further information on studying and working in Canada refer to the Government of Canada website at <https://www.canada.ca/en/immigration-refugees-citizenship.html>

LRSD reserves the right to modify or cancel any program, process or procedure without notice or prejudice. Please visit the LRSD International Student Program website <http://isp.lrsd.net> for complete up-to-date program information.
